

COMMUNITY CENTER FEASIBILITY STUDY PROCESS TO DATE:

- Staff workshop on programming needs and facility needs
- Data collection on existing facilities and programs
- Tour of the city to look at possible site locations
- Kick-off meeting with Ad-Hoc Committee to develop planning criteria/process
- On-line Community Survey – 387 responses
- Hard Copy Community Survey – 247 responses
- Focus Group with Seniors & Library stakeholders
- Focus Group with Teens & Youth stakeholders
- Focus Group with Clubs/Organizations/ and User Groups
- Existing Conditions Report showing community input results and recommended program space needs for new community center
- Site location spreadsheet analysis to rank possible sites for a new community center
- Ad-Hoc Committee review of sites and selection of top 3 to develop concept site plans to see how recommended programming space fits on the site