Subject: South Pasadena to Host 2025 State of the City

South Pasadena, Calif. – South Pasadena will host its annual State of the City on Wednesday, December 3, 2025, in the Amedee O. “Dick” Richards, Jr., Council Chambers, located at 1424 Mission Street. The event will be held during the regular City Council Meeting, which is scheduled to begin at 7:00 p.m.

Mayor Janet Braun will provide a presentation highlighting progress and achievements during the last year in South Pasadena, in addition to plans and objectives for the city’s future. A brief reception will take place after the presentation, where food and refreshments will be provided.

State of the City is open to the public, but residents who cannot attend in-person are encouraged to watch live on the City’s website. City Council Meetings are recorded and available for six months online.

About the City of South Pasadena

The City of South Pasadena is a charming community, situated only six miles from downtown Los Angeles. Called the City of Trees, the area is known for its stunning homes, unique small businesses, and top-quality schools. South Pasadena’s diverse population of about 25,000 occupies a mere 3.44 square miles of flatlands and hillsides on the west side of the San Gabriel Valley. This small-town atmosphere makes South Pasadena one of California’s most desirable locations.
