Subject: Senator Sasha Renée Pérez to Host Community Town Hall on Children's Mental Health in the Wake of the Eaton Fire

South Pasadena, CA – Senator Sasha Renée Pérez invites local communities to a vital town hall event, "Healing Together: Our Children's Mental Health After the Eaton Fire," on Saturday, June 28, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at Pasadena City College's Creveling Lounge.

In response to the profound emotional toll the Eaton Fire has taken on local families, especially children, this event will bring together mental health experts, community organizations, and state representatives to support healing and resilience. Attendees will gain practical tools to help young people navigate trauma, stress, and recovery.

The town hall will feature expert presentations and a Q&A session, as well as resource tables hosted by:

- CA Children and Youth Behavioral Health Initiative
- Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health
- Didi Hirsch Suicide Prevention Center
- NAMI San Gabriel Valley
- Chinatown Service Center
- Young & Healthy
- Sycamores

Senator Pérez's staff will also be on-site to offer State and Legislative resources.

RSVP are encouraged and can be submitted to

Event Details:

Date: Saturday, June 28, 2025

Time: 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Location: Pasadena City College (Creveling Lounge)
1570 E. Colorado Blvd., Pasadena, CA 91106

Together, we can build a stronger foundation of support for our children's mental health.

About the City of South Pasadena

The City of South Pasadena is a charming community, situated only six miles from downtown Los Angeles. Called the City of Trees, the area is known for its stunning homes, unique small businesses, and top-quality schools. South Pasadena's diverse population of about 25,000 occupies a mere 3.44 square miles of flatlands and hillsides on the west side of the San Gabriel Valley. This small-town atmosphere makes South Pasadena one of California's most desirable locations.
