Subject: South Pasadena Public Library Introduces Toddler Dance Parties

South Pasadena, Calif.– On Monday, March 16, 2026, at 4:00 p.m., the South Pasadena Public Library will host a Toddler Dance Party in the Library Community Room, located at 1115 El Centro Street, South Pasadena, CA 91030. Going forward, Toddler Dance Parties will take place every third Monday from 4:00 - 4:30 p.m. No registration is required.

Geared toward ages 1 to 3 years old, Toddler Dance Parties are fun and exploratory dance-alongs led by library staff. Attendees and their guardians will dance to family-friendly action songs that encourage kinetic learning, spatial awareness, and self-confidence. All children must be accompanied by an adult.

Upon request made no later than four (4) business days before the event, the City will provide reasonable accommodation for a qualified person with a disability to have equal access to the event. Please call (626) 403-7431 or fill out the City's request form available at www.southpasadenaca.gov/ADA and email the form to Human Resources at HR@southpasadenaca.gov.

About the City of South Pasadena

The City of South Pasadena is a charming community, situated only six miles from downtown Los Angeles. Called the City of Trees, the area is known for its stunning homes, unique small businesses, and top-quality schools. South Pasadena's diverse population of about 25,000 occupies a mere 3.44 square miles of flatlands and hillsides on the west side of the San Gabriel Valley. This small-town atmosphere makes South Pasadena one of California's most desirable locations.
