Rebuttal to the Argument in Favor of Measure N

The two proponents of Measure N ignore important facts:

Fact #1: South Pasadena depends on UUT funding for essential services that protect our safety and quality of life, like neighborhood police patrols, firefighting, 911 emergency response, fixing potholes and maintaining parks and libraries. Why put these vital services at risk?

Fact #2: The salaries and benefits paid to South Pasadena employees are competitive with neighboring cities and regional averages. Do we want to be the employer of last resort for paramedics, police officers, firefighters and librarians?

Fact #3: No city can withdraw from the state pension system without paying SEVERE penalties and, even then, the City's obligations to past retirees would remain. No other city has done this. Why would we?

Fact #4: California has a pension problem, but it's a statewide problem impacting all cities, not just South Pasadena. In fact, South Pasadena already implemented pension reform with reduced benefits for newer employees who are required to make significant retirement contributions. Measure N doesn't solve the statewide problem that needs a statewide solution. Why slash OUR services for a statewide problem?

Fact #5: Quality services directly impact our quality of life and property values. Because our public safety services keep our city safe and desirable, we enjoy very strong home values. The SMALL savings from repealing the UUT are FAR outweighed by the BIG risk of reduced safety and quality of life. Why mess with a good thing for so little?

Remember, N is for NO because it is NOT worth the risk.
