

Foreign Film For March/April 2020

MOVIES BEGIN AT 1:00PM

March 09: Custody (2018) French (93 minutes)

A broken marriage leads to a bitter custody battle with an embattled son at the center, a domestic thriller that will keep audiences guessing and leave them with their hearts in their throats.

March 23: The Teacher (2017) Slovak (103 minutes)

In 1983 suburban Bratislava, education takes a backseat to politics when it becomes clear that for middle-schoolers to get good marks from their new teacher a high-ranking Communist official their parents must be willing to do her bidding.

April 13: The Invisibles (2019) German (110 minutes)

This riveting docudrama follows four resourceful Jewish youths living under Nazi rule in 1943 Berlin, where they elude the roundup of Jews by taking cover in safe houses and freely walking the streets, virtually hiding in plain sight.

April 27: Police, Adjective (2009) Romanian (113 minutes)

Undercover cop Cristi (Dragos Bucur) trails suspected pot dealer Victor (Radu Costin) through the decrepit streets of Vaslui, but when he learns that the suspect is just a teen who sometimes gets high with his pals, he refuses to make an arrest. Unfortunately, Cristi's boss (Ioan Stoica) isn't quite as forgiving.

South Pasadena Senior Center 1102
Oxley St. South Pasadena 91030
(626) 403-7360

Movies at the South Pasadena Senior Center are shown per an annual license agreement from the Motion Picture Licensing Corporation #12570160

